Services for Children

Wishes and Feelings

Wishes and Feelings is an eight-week programme, which supports children's emotional wellbeing. This is delivered through a range of different activities, discussions, and games. The sessions are based on the child's individual needs and covers topics such as: worries, feelings and emotions, self-esteem, bullying and friendships. This programme can be delivered to children as part of a group or as support for the whole family.

We deliver our Wishes and Feelings sessions to individual children across Allerdale.
For further information please contact us on 07815687287 to find out more.

Recovery Toolkit for Children

The Children and Young People Domestic Abuse Recovery Toolkit is an eight-week programme for any young person that has witnessed or experienced domestic abuse and feels able to take part in a group.

The aim of the Children and Young People Domestic Abuse Recovery Toolkit is to help children and young people become experts in their own recovery. By educating the child that they are not responsible for what has happened to them, we help them understand that they are not to blame for any decisions taken at the time of domestic abuse.

This programme is specifically for children who are no longer living with the abusive parent and is suitable for children aged 8 years and over.

For further information or to register your interest in a place please contact us on 07815687287
Or by email at Allerdale@family-action.org.uk and someone will contact you for further information

Decider Skills

Decider Skills helps you to recognise your thoughts, feelings and behaviours and learn how to manage these in a safe way. This six-week course can be delivered to children, young people and their families as part of a group offer or as support for the whole family.

The Decider Skills are taught in a fun and memorable way and will promote effective communication between the whole family. Come and join us at our next group which is specifically for children aged 12 years and upwards.

We deliver our Decider Skills sessions within groups across Allerdale.
For further information please contact us on 07815687287 to find out more.

Drawing and Talking

Drawing and Talking is a therapeutic intervention for children and adults. It is designed as a short-term proactive intervention intended to complement, rather than replace, the work of Specialist Mental Health Services.

Through a 12-week cycle of sessions this non-intrusive tool allows children and young people to bring what they need to their sessions. Utilising drawing as a way to help them express their feelings differently in ordinary verbal language. The Drawing & Talking apart from existing solution- focused and cognitive based therapies and interventions.

Drawing and Talking

We deliver our Drawing and Talking sessions to individual children across Allerdale.
For further information please contact us on 07815687287 to find out more.

Solihull - Understanding your Brain

Solihull Understanding your child with additional needs

This specialist course for parents, relatives or friends of children with additional needs is designed to support you to better understand their world and how the important relationship you share can enable them to thrive. It's also for you as a support for your emotional wellbeing. Parenting a child with additional needs can bring a range of big emotions, that at times may feel overwhelming. Recognising and processing these feelings is a really important part of the care you provide your child.

Solihull Online Course

The Solihull programme will help you understand your child's development and behaviour and promotes positive emotional health and wellbeing. This online course can be completed in your own time, and there are courses suitable from pregnancy to 19 years and translated in a wide range of languages.

To access this, visit www.inourplace.co.uk and use the code WORDSWORTH

Family Support

Family Action can offer one to one support to families in their own homes. This practical support will promote parenting capacity and could focus on boundaries, routines, home conditions, behaviour management, safety, relationships/attachment, support to access other agencies.

Volunteering Could you be a Volunteer with us?

Volunteering has been at the heart of Family Action since we were established in 1869, run solely by volunteers. As a volunteer you will gain valuable skills and experience working as part of a team making a real difference to the lives of children, young people and families in your area and there are lots of ways you can give your time.

If this interests you or you would like an informal chat please contact:

alldale@family-action.org.uk

Perinatal Peer Support Service

Perinatal Peer Support Volunteer

Do you have what it takes to provide emotional support to a mum or primary care giver during the perinatal period. The Perinatal period is during pregnancy and a year following the birth.

We are looking for volunteers to support parents who are experiencing a mild to moderate mental health illness or are identified as vulnerable to developing a mental health illness during the perinatal period. This support may be offered through home visits, remote telephone or video call, group work or support to access other local services.

It is preferable if you have experienced pregnancy and childbirth, or you have an understanding of mental distress, the emotional effects of pregnancy and birth and the demands of parenthood

For further information please contact us on 07815687287

or by email at Alldale@family-action.org.uk and someone will contact you for further information

FamilyLine

Family pressures can sometimes be difficult to manage without emotional support and guidance to help. Many people feel confused by what information is available or struggle to access services close to home.

Our free FamilyLine service, tackles these issues in a new and innovative way by using a network of volunteers from across the country to support family members over the age of 18 through telephone calls, email, web chat and text message.

The service aims to:

- provide both immediate and long-term support
- help with practical information and guidance
- provide emotional and listening support
- help with understanding and accessing relevant services and information
- provide regular one-to-one befriending support to service users feeling isolated
- access to short term telephone counselling
- a referral into our many projects across England and Wales, where relevant.

Please contact us for support in the following ways Monday to Friday 9:00am – 9:00pm

call: 0808 802 6666,

text: 07537 404282,

email: familyline@family-action.org.uk or live web via our website www.family-action.org.uk

Contacting us out of hours:

Do you need FamilyLine but it's out of our operation hours? You can either call back in our opening hours, leave a message on our voice mail for a call back in our operation hours or if you're in crisis you can contact our crisis line to get in touch with a trained professional.

- Text FAMILYACTION to 85258

Our crisis messenger text service provides free, 24/7 crisis support across the UK. We know that getting the correct support at the right time is so beneficial which is why we've introduced our crisis line. This service is delivered in partnership with Shout.
